

Selected Items: Teaching Supports Domain - Self-Assessment Checklist

The following checklist is designed to assess areas from the Teaching Supports domain at individual sites. This checklist can be used by an administrator, coach, and/or teaching staff.

Work Condition	Needs Improvement	Adequate	Good
The program uses a curriculum to address what children should learn and how they should be taught. If so, answer the bulleted indicators below:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Teaching staff utilize the curriculum to inform how they teach
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Teaching staff receive training on how to use the curriculum
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Teaching staff can explain how daily activities are part of the curriculum
Administrators and program leaders ensure that input is taken seriously and equally from all staff members
Teaching staff have paid time away from children to meet with other teaching staff to reflect on classroom practice
There are enough trained teaching staff to help with children during staff breaks and special projects
Teaching staff do most of their paperwork (e.g., completing child assessments) during paid work hours
Teaching staff feel supported by their coworkers to try new approaches to teaching

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF CHILD CARE EMPLOYMENT
Institute for Research on Labor and Employment University of California, Berkeley cscce.berkeley.edu